

AdmissionsQuest Announces Enhanced Catalog Request Form

Belmont, MA – March 13, 2008 - Families visiting AdmissionsQuest.com can submit a single school catalog request to all participating AdmissionsQuest (AQ) member schools. The enhanced service makes it quick and easy for parents to request school catalogs and admission information.

AQ president Peter Baron commented, “our new feature is designed for families to contact our members through a single point of entry. We’re confident that the general school catalog request form will enhance our visitors site experience and make connecting with the right school that much easier.”

AQ general school catalog request form is one of the resources available at <http://www.AdmissionsQuest.com>.

AdmissionsQuest serves as an online resource for students and parents researching and applying to boarding schools. AQ provides detailed boarding school profiles & search tools, along with articles about boarding schools, the admission process and private school loans. AQ also offers educational consulting services through AQ Educational Consulting.
